

- 1 x Inflatable Globe

Repeat the Globe Game – it was played in the first week as part of the ‘The Big Picture’.
Remind the pupils how difficult it was back then for them to think about their global connections. This time round, pupils will undoubtedly have many more ideas for places in the world that they are connected to. They will probably feel very pleased about this very real example of how their learning has progressed.